

In Prayer Together Let Us Fall

1. In prayer to - geth - er let us fall, And
2. Thy grace have we of - fend - ed sore, By
3. Re - mem - ber thou, though frail we be, That
4. For - give the sin that we have wrought; In -
5. Blest Three in One, and One in Three, Al -

1. cry for mer - cy, one and all, And weep be - fore the
2. sins, O God, which we de - plore; But pour up - on us
3. yet thy hand-i - work are we; Nor let the hon - or
4. cease the good that we have sought: That we at length, our
5. might - y God, we pray to thee, That this our fast of

1. Judg - e's feet, And his a - veng - ing wrath en - treat.
2. from on high, O pard - 'ning One, thy clem - en - cy.
3. of thy Name Be by an - oth - er put to shame.
4. wand - 'rings o'er, May please thee here and ev - er - more.
5. for - ty days May work our prof - it and thy praise.

Text: Precemur omnes cernui, Attr. Gregory the Great; Tr. John M. Neale, alt. Melody: ROCKINGHAM, 8.8.8.8. (L.M.); Attr. Edward Miller, 1731-1807.
Text and Melody: Public Domain.